DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: *

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS: (Essential functions of this position are listed below. The position also includes additional functions as needed and/or assigned by supervisor.)

*Expectations regarding quality and quantity of work are further delineated in the criteria-based performance appraisal.

1. Provide peer counseling and support, drawing on common experiences as a peer, to validate individuals' experiences and to provide guidance and encouragement to persons served to take responsibility and actively participate in their own recovery.
2. Serve as a mentor to persons served to promote hope and empowerment.
3. Act as an interpreter to help non-mental health consumer team members better understand and empathize with each client's unique and subjective experience and perceptions.
4. Provide expertise and consultation from a mental health consumer perspective to the entire team concerning individuals' experiences with symptoms of mental illness, the effects and side-effects of medications, individuals' responses to and opinions of treatment, and individuals' experiences of recovery.
5. Collaborate with the team to promote a team culture in which each person's point of view, experiences, and preferences are recognized, understood, and respected, and in which client self-determination and decision-making in treatment planning are maximized and supported.
6. Help clients identify, understand, and combat stigma and discrimination associated with mental illness and develop strategies to reduce self-stigma.
7. Help other team members identify and understand culture-wide stigma and discrimination against people with mental illness and develop strategies to eliminate stigma within the team.
8. Collaborate with the team to ensure the protection of clients' rights in order to help the persons served to improve their knowledge of client rights and grievances or complaint procedures.
9. In relating to clients, maintain clarity on the difference between helping and friendship behaviors. Exercise good judgment with seeking supervision as needed.
10. Collaborate with the team to help persons served learn about pertinent grievance procedures and support individuals with filing, mediating, and resolving complaints.
11. Increase awareness of and support client participation in consumer self-help programs and consumer advocacy organizations that promote recovery.
12. Serve as the liaison between the team and consumer-run programs such as self-help groups and drop-in centers.
13. Share duties in the provision of treatment and substance abuse services.
14. Assist in the provision of ongoing assessment of clients' mental illness symptoms and clients' responses to treatment. Suggest appropriate changes in treatment plans to ensure that immediate and appropriate interventions are provided in response to changes in clients' mental status or behavior, which place individuals at risk (e.g., suicidality).

15. Assist in the provision of direct clinical services to clients on an individual, group, and family basis in the office and in community settings to teach symptom-management techniques and promote personal growth and development by assisting persons served to cope with internal and external stresses.
16. Assist in the provision of individual and group treatment in the office and in community settings in a stage-based treatment model that is non-confrontational, considers interactions of mental illness and substance abuse, and has client-determined goals.
17. Share duties in the provision of rehabilitation services.
18. Perform mentoring, problem solving, encouragement and support on and off the job site.
19. Provide work-related supportive services, such as assistance securing necessary clothing and grooming supplies, wake-up calls, and transportation.
20. Provide ongoing assessment, problem solving, side-by-side services, skill teaching, support (prompts, assignments, encouragement), and environmental adaptations to assist persons served with activities of daily living.
21. Assist persons served to find and maintain a safe and affordable place to live. This may include apartment hunting, finding a roommate, landlord negotiations, cleaning, furnishing and decorating, and procuring necessities (telephone, furniture, utility hook-up).
22. Assist and support individuals to organize and perform household activities, including house cleaning and laundry.
23. Assist and support individuals with personal hygiene and grooming tasks.
24. Provide nutrition education and assistance with meal planning, grocery shopping, and food preparation.
25. Ensure that clients have adequate financial support (help to gain employment and apply for entitlements).
26. Teach money-management skills (budgeting and paying bills) and assist individuals in accessing financial services (e.g., professional financial counseling, emergency loan services).
27. Help persons served to access reliable transportation (e.g., obtain a driver's license and a car and car insurance, arrange for cabs, use public transportation, find rides).
28. Assist and support clients to have and effectively use a personal primary care physician, dentist, and other medical specialists as required.

*Expectations regarding quality and quantity of work are further delineated in the criteria-based performance appraisal.

- 29. Provide side-by-side support, coaching and encouragement to help individuals socialize (going with a client to community activities, including activities offered by consumer-run peer support organizations).
- 30. Assist individuals to plan and carry out leisure time activities on evenings, weekends, and holidays.
- 31. Organize and lead individual and group social and recreational activities to help clients structure their time, increase social experiences, and provide opportunities to practice social skills.
- 32. Provide practical help and supports, mentoring, advocacy, coordination, side-by-side individualized support, problem solving, direct assistance and supervision to help clients obtain the necessities of daily living including medical and dental health care; legal and advocacy services; financial support such as entitlements (SSI, SSDI, veterans' benefits); housing subsidies (HUD Section 8); money-management services (e.g., payee services); and transportation.

OTHER ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- 1. Travel required between multiple service sites, to the homes or residences of persons served, and within the community.
- 2. Perform away-from-center intervention activities.
- 3. When no other alternatives are available, transport individuals in personal or Center vehicles.
